Bulletin for July 16, 2017

Christmas in July August 5/6

So it's not Christmas and it won't be in July, but it will be a great celebration of God's sending his Son to save us! Plus, it will be a great excuse to sing some of the great Christmas songs! Celebrate with us! Bring friends!!

Better Homes for Appalachia

Pastor Potts, Mrs. Shannon Willey, and 3 of our Trinity Youth – Sam Hackbarth, McKaila Whitwam, and Jordan Younglove – are in Garrett County Maryland serving others in need there. Please pray for them as they grow deeper in their relationship to God through this experience. A presentation will be given by the youth Aug. 6 during fellowship time in the Gym.

NOTICE: The congregation voted in May for work to be done in the gymnasium this summer. Great effort was put in to make that happen, but it has been decided to wait with this project and include it in the other renovation components we hope to address in 2018.

Special Voters' Meeting July 23

9:45am / Gym. If necessary, this will be held to call a candidate for the position of 3rd grade teacher.

Los Limones Mission

Please come to the gymnasium next Sunday at 9:45am for a presentation on the trip. We would love to have you know more and pray more knowledgeable for this mission and its success.

SERMON NOTES

God Has Given You Options

Matthew 13

God is no dummy—He plants His word where it will grow. Put yourself in a place where His word can thrive.

- How can you stay off the beaten path (daily grind of your life)?
- How can you stay away from the rocks (shallow knowledge of God)?
- How can you avoid the thorns (ungodly things of this world)?
- Why would we blame God when our choices weaken us?

Pastor's Thoughts for the Day

This week we will read Nehemiah 13. Catch my thoughts on our website or Facebook page.
