Bulletin for March 3, 2019

Joining Jesus On His Mission

This is exciting as we have about 30 groups meeting to discuss what they are reading in this book and what that means. This is going to be an amazing Lenten season!

Ash Wednesday

Worship this Wednesday at 10am or 6pm to start off the season of Lent. Our focus for midweek worship this year will be to explore the wonder of redemption and restoration that Jesus offers to all—two things that have changed your life. All other Wednesday services will be held at 11am and 6pm.

Phase 2 has begun. Construction workers began this past Wednesday. While we are excited by that, it does mean more dust and noise in the future. Thank you for your prayers and your patience.

Prayer for the Week

Pray, with thanksgiving, for every person God has connected to Trinity. Then pray for opportunities to connect with someone you do not know. God will open those doors if you want it. Be the Body of Christ. By this they will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. John 13:35

Altar Flowers This Week

Presented by George Boerboom in memory of his wife Linda, whose birthday would have been March 1.

March-April Newsletter is Out!

The March-April issue of the Trinity Newsletter is now available. Find a copy at the Information Centers today. We also will be e-mailing copies to those with e-mail. If you do not get one, please call the Church Office and we'll get it to you.

SERMON NOTES

Healing & Saving: Is God Holistic?

Luke 17:11-19

- Do you expect more from Christians? Why?
- Jesus healed 10 lepers. How was the one who returned to worship him doubly blessed?
- The one thing we need from Jesus is forgiveness. How does it feel that He gives us so much more?

What we have to offer is grace, grace that has been poured out on us.
