

The Sanctity of Life

Our nation struggles to see and celebrate the value of life—the significance of each person who lives and breathes. The world looks for what one has to offer; we look to God who offers each person born as a gift to the world.

- The girl with birth defects has value because God created her.
- The crippled old man with dementia has value because God created him.

The issue of abortion matters to Trinity because people matter to the God we worship. We value life—not if a person has something to offer, but because we believe that each and every person is created by God and is precious to Him. Therefore each person matters. It does not matter:

- the color of their skin
- their GPA
- their “potential”
- what they can do for us.

“What work has God prepared for you? (Ephesians 2:10). Is it helping a woman who is pregnant and alone? Is it ministering to someone who has had an abortion and can’t believe that God would forgive her? Is it feeding the hungry? ... Whatever God has called you to do, do it with joy.”

Kay L. Meyer, former dir. of dev.--Lutherans For Life

The Sanctity of Life

Our nation struggles to see and celebrate the value of life—the significance of each person who lives and breathes. The world looks for what one has to offer; we look to God who offers each person born as a gift to the world.

- The girl with birth defects has value because God created her.
- The crippled old man with dementia has value because God created him.

The issue of abortion matters to Trinity because people matter to the God we worship. We value life—not if a person has something to offer, but because we believe that each and every person is created by God and is precious to Him. Therefore each person matters. It does not matter:

- the color of their skin
- their GPA
- their “potential”
- what they can do for us.

“What work has God prepared for you? (Ephesians 2:10). Is it helping a woman who is pregnant and alone? Is it ministering to someone who has had an abortion and can’t believe that God would forgive her? Is it feeding the hungry? ... Whatever God has called you to do, do it with joy.”

Kay L. Meyer, former dir. of dev.--Lutherans For Life

Come & See the Works of the Lord!

Lutheran Schools week is a great opportunity for us to give thanks to God for all He is doing among us. God has blessed this ministry for 175 years—much more than we deserve. Our history is sprinkled with great people and great achievements in ministry. BUT GOD IS NOT DONE! What if we were to approach ministry as if we were just starting out and asking this question, “God, what would you like Trinity to be and to do?” We believe His answers include these new ministry actions:

- Adding to the school’s strong academic program with new emphases on leadership and technology.
- Remodeling facilities for the 21st century—a commitment to future ministry.
- Making the school accessible to the handicapped by installing an elevator (action taken just last Sunday).
- Establishing a new ministry, The King’s Table, Eating/Working together with neighbors to strengthen Monroe.
- All of us reading a book during Lent, Joining Jesus on His Mission, to see how Jesus is working in the lives of those we know and love—and how we can be part of that.

God has placed YOU here in this time and place that He might touch the lives of many people. We are so grateful that many of YOU have answered that call. We have just completed the first phase of the remodeling project (over $1 million) and we have not had to borrow any money yet! Thanks for your support. Because of this we will boldly take on phase 2. While we have agreed to borrow up to $1.2 million if necessary, we ask your continued financial support and your prayers that God would bless this action and our financial standing would be stronger, not weaker, for taking on the challenge.

Come & See the Works of the Lord!

Lutheran Schools week is a great opportunity for us to give thanks to God for all He is doing among us. God has blessed this ministry for 175 years—much more than we deserve. Our history is sprinkled with great people and great achievements in ministry. BUT GOD IS NOT DONE! What if we were to approach ministry as if we were just starting out and asking this question, “God, what would you like Trinity to be and to do?” We believe His answers include these new ministry actions:

- Adding to the school’s strong academic program with new emphases on leadership and technology.
- Remodeling facilities for the 21st century—a commitment to future ministry.
- Making the school accessible to the handicapped by installing an elevator (action taken just last Sunday).
- Establishing a new ministry, The King’s Table, Eating/Working together with neighbors to strengthen Monroe.
- All of us reading a book during Lent, Joining Jesus on His Mission, to see how Jesus is working in the lives of those we know and love—and how we can be part of that.

God has placed YOU here in this time and place that He might touch the lives of many people. We are so grateful that many of YOU have answered that call. We have just completed the first phase of the remodeling project (over $1 million) and we have not had to borrow any money yet! Thanks for your support. Because of this we will boldly take on phase 2. While we have agreed to borrow up to $1.2 million if necessary, we ask your continued financial support and your prayers that God would bless this action and our financial standing would be stronger, not weaker, for taking on the challenge.

